A Brief History of Lakeland

Long before Lakeland was as you see it today, Lakeland, the amusement park, was located on Garner Lake. This 300-acre man made lake was the hub of recreational activity in west Shelby County. The park closed in the late 1970s, but remnants of the park remain throughout the city. There are also remnants of the long gone drag strip and motorcycle dirt track if you look closely.

The City incorporated in 1977, formed its own school system in 2014, and operates under a City Manager form of government with a mayor and five commissioners. Lakeland is all about quality and has BIG dreams for its future.
