

COMMUNITY LEADERS NEEDED

Volunteer Now!

The City of Lakeland Board of Commissioners is accepting applications for Lakeland residents willing to serve in the following volunteer positions:

Citizen Advisory Board: The Citizen Advisory Board was created in March 2019 by the Board of Commissioners. We are seeking eight community members that will represent distinct geographical areas in the City of Lakeland. Key objectives for the Lakeland Citizen Advisory Board include:

- Improve communication between Lakeland residents, City staff and Board of Commissioners
- Provide citizens the opportunity for early engagement on important community issues/concerns
- Create an opportunity for Lakeland residents to learn more about City government and departments
- Provide input directly from their respective neighborhood area to inform staff and Board of Commissioners in an effort to more efficiently allocate resources

For additional information or application, contact Shane Horn at (901) 867-2717, visit the City website at <http://www.lakelandtn.gov/documentcenter/view/152> or email shorn@lakelandtn.org.
